Description

An original circus poster from Belgium, printed in 1959 by Ets. Léon Beyaert-Sioen in Kortrijk. This famous Flemish printing house supplied posters to travelling circuses all over Europe, and its expressive clown portraits are among the most sought-after circus posters today.The poster shows a cheerful clown with a red pointed hat and a white pompom, tufts of black hair, a big red nose and a broad smile, giving the viewer a playful wink while he raises a white-gloved hand to his chin. He wears a wide yellow ruff and a checked jacket in green, yellow and dark red with a large blue button. The portrait stands on a light blue background, framed by a red border with white and yellow stars.The poster is printed on paper in vivid red, blue, yellow and green, in the detailed, painterly style that made the
