Description

Set of 12 silver-plated metal knife holders from Ravinet d'Enfert, Paris, presented in their original case.In the Art Deco style, these knife holders feature a sleek geometric shape, consisting of a rectangular crossbar resting on two semicircular supports. Their understated, architectural design is characteristic of tableware from the first half of the 20th century.The set is preserved in its green-lined case.The lid bears the gilded inscription "Ravinet d'Enfert - Paris," surmounted by a fleur-de-lis.The Ravinet d'Enfert company, founded in the 19th century, specialized in silverware and tableware. It notably produced silver-plated pieces with modernist lines during the Art Deco period.In good overall condition.
