Meissen - Model G7 - Young Girl With A Grape Garland - 19th Century - Minor Chips

125 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Meissen - Model G7 - Young Girl with a Grape Garland - 19th century - Minor chipsMeissen porcelain figurine depicting a young girl holding a vine garland adorned with grape clusters and leaves.Model: G7, created in 1778 by Michel Victor Acier.Date: circa 1850-1860.Height: approximately 9 cm.Hand-painted polychrome porcelain with gold highlights. Pink bodice, floral-patterned dress, and blue shoes. Square base with a gilded border.Mark: crossed swords in blue under the glaze.Quality: first choice.Condition: minor chips and cracks on the leaves and grape clusters.

Dealer

Inewera antique

Antiquités

Mobile : +48575485047

Ignacego Paderewskiego 7

Szreniawa 62052