Description

Stunning table lamp Model 1853, known as the "Fontana", designed in 1954 by Max Ingrand (1908-1969) for the renowned Italian manufacturer and publisher Fontana Arte. (Vintage model)A true icon of mid-20th-century Italian design, this lamp captivates with its sculptural lines, harmonious proportions, and the timeless elegance of its white opaline glass.It consists of a spherical base made of satin-finished opaline glass, resting on a circular base of perforated white-lacquered metal, topped by an imposing truncated-cone-shaped shade also made of opaline glass.Its dual lighting system is one of its most remarkable features:Internal lighting within the base, diffusing a soft, warm glow.An upper light source, beneath the shade, providing additional illumination.Period socket and original
