rare piece for saleCenter diamond in a bezel setting and eight diamonds in an old-cut settingWide setting with a retro lookPre-owned fine jewelry piece, hallmarked and authenticatedThe setting features two wide borders and a central section, which adds character while visually lightening the overall design.The center diamond, set in a closed setting, is perfectly showcased.The eight accent diamonds form a generous crown.The piece as a whole evokes a flower, with a more structured appearance thanks to the lines of the setting.The style combines a classic motif with a geometric setting: a retro look with a striking presence and a balance between curves and geometry.White gold is an 18-karat gold alloyed with white metals, giving it this light, luminous hue--perfect for highlighting the diamonds. Here, the curves of a floral motif meet geometric lines: it is this contrast that gives this ring its retro look and character.
