Description

We are selling this interesting tastevin from the first quarter of the 19th century, certainly dating from after 1819, with a snake-shaped handle--a classic design of that era.Two hallmarks are stamped on the base within an oval: the head of Michelangelo and, within a diamond, the silversmith's mark, on which one can make out a St. Andrew's cross and an "N," accompanied by another letter that is unfortunately illegible.Another hallmark is present between the handle and the body of the tastevin.Two more hallmarks appear on the rim: the head of Michelangelo and another depicting a rooster with the number 1.925/1000 silver.Weight: 72.52 g.Diameter: 7.7 cm.Good condition.Shipping not included.
