Okimono Of Hotei Carrying A Bundle

200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Ivory

Height : 4,5 cm

Description

We present this beautiful okimono from the Meiji period (1868-1912), depicting a figure carrying a huge sack on his back (Hotei or the Laughing Buddha).Hotei is one of the seven deities of happiness in Japan. He is traditionally depicted with his large cloth sack, called a Nunobukuro.The signature at the feet corresponds to a workshop name, which is common on okimono from this period.Height: 4.5 cm.In perfect condition.Complies with current legislation as it dates well before the Washington Treaty (1947).Shipping not included.

Dealer

Forezienne d'antiquités

Antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 06 73 22 83 89

10 bis avenue de la libération

Montbrison 42600