Description

Art Nouveau Table Lamp - Muller Frères Lunéville, circa 1910A remarkable Art Nouveau table lamp resting on a sumptuous gilded bronze base, richly adorned with floral motifs, foliage, and two female faces with long, flowing hair.The sinuous lines of the hair, stems, and leaves elegantly illustrate the famous "whiplash" motif, characteristic of Art Nouveau.The glass shade, featuring colorful inclusions in shades of blue, orange, and yellow, creates a particularly refined play of light.Like Émile Gallé and Daum Nancy, the Muller brothers are among the great French master glassmakers of the early 20th century, renowned for the exceptional quality of their creations and their nature-inspired designs.A remarkable collector's piece, representative of the excellence of French decorative arts during the
