Description

A charming little side table or end table in a compact size, made of 19th-century solid walnut Its rectangular, molded top with rounded edges sits atop a band that opens to reveal a drawer at the front, featuring a carved shell-rosette pull knob. The piece rests on four elegant turned baluster legs with rings, ending in small spindle feet. They are connected at the base by a remarkable X-shaped scroll-cut brace forming volute arches, adorned in the center with a turned spindle.A slender and well-balanced piece, ideal as an end table, reading table, or small tall nightstand thanks to its 70 cm height and compact size.The structure is in good overall condition; the piece is sound and stable. Please note signs of wear that attest to its history Height: 70 cmWidth: 40 cmDepth: 30 cm
