Description

Original store display from Menorca, dating from the 1960s. This piece holds 11 hand-blown glass jars, each with its own lid.The perfectly rounded jars are arranged on six levels and held in place by metal rings attached to a central metal frame. Their arrangement was designed to display and showcase candies, sweets, cookies, and other treats.The display stands on a base with wheels, allowing it to be easily moved as needed by the store.Today, this sculptural piece can be used as a display unit, a decorative element, or an original storage solution.A unique piece that poetically evokes the atmosphere of village grocery stores and childhood memories, while making a striking decorative statement.Dimensions: 40 cm deep × 50 cm wide × 181 cm highDimensions of a jar: 27 cm in diameterFor any additional information,
