Victorian Coral Wedding Tiara In Gilded Metal

1 350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Metal

Description

Victorian Coral wedding tiara in gilded metal. Antique hair ornament in gilded metal and natural coral, designed to adorn a 19th-century wedding hairstyle. Its crescent structure is organized into three tiers: the top is crowned with a slightly sloping row of oval-shaped faceted coral beads. In the center, an openwork gallery composed of a succession of leaf motifs, each housing a faceted coral bead. The base ends with a fine continuous line of round coral beads underlined by a stamped floral frieze. Antique tiara, Empire style, early 19th century, France.Width: 16 cm - Max. height: 2.7 cm - Depth: 4 cmFastening system: ends designed to be secured with pins in the hairstyleCondition: slightly deformed curve.Weight: 36.56 g

Dealer

Maison Mohs
Antique & Vintage jewelry

- sur rendez-vous -

Paris 75004