Description

A beautiful, classic-style single-light "bouillotte" lamp, fully restored by us, The base is made of solid brass, circular in shape, with a beaded rim and a concentric motif chiseled into the bottom. The central stem, topped by a Restoration-style handle, allows for easy adjustment of the lampshade's height. The lampshade, made of sheet metal painted in a deep Empire green, features a white interior that ensures excellent light reflection. The central shaft houses a faux white candle. Condition: The item has undergone a thorough restoration. The brass has been polished and the lampshade has been repainted. The electrical system has been completely redone, using a brown braided fabric cord in an antique style, a matching olive-shaped switch, and a vintage plug, making the lamp ready for
