Description

DescriptionAttributed to Josep Ferré Revascall, this oil painting on card shows yellow and deep burgundy roses rising from a cluster of green leaves against a warm cream ground. Broad, visible brushstrokes shape the petals, with pale yellow highlights picking out their curled edges and touches of blue deepening the shadows. The tallest red rose stands apart above the cluster, giving the upright arrangement an airy balance. Signed at lower left, the work takes a loose, expressive approach to the floral still life. Its restrained background and rich flower colours make it an understated focal point on a neutral wall or among other works on paper.ArtistJosep Ferré Revascall (1907-2001) was a Catalan painter.Artist DetailsThe backing is inscribed "J. Ferré Revascall," "Reus," and "Roses." It also
