Description

Antique oil-on-canvas painting with a period frame of Flemish origin, depicting a still life with flowers, dating from the early 20th century.The composition features a rich bouquet of multicolored flowers arranged dramatically inside a basket and next to a large ornamental urn with a lid, placed on an architectural base.The dark background creates a striking chromatic contrast with the vibrancy of the flowers, enhancing their red, pink, white, and purple hues.The period frame, made of ebonized wood, is embellished with gilded ornamental motifs at the corners.General Condition: Good condition.Provenance: The Netherlands, early 20th century.Dimensions: 110 x H 130 cm.Documentation: Certificate of Authenticity.Customer Service: We are available
