Description

A refined sculpture in high-quality white statuary marble, crafted in Italy during the early decades of the 19th century. The work depicts a boy in a playful pose, captured while playing a reed instrument, with a small dog at his feet.The elegance of the modeling is evident in the soft, anatomical rendering of the child's body, the delicate treatment of the drapery, and the meticulous attention to detail, such as the curls of the hair, the serene expression on the face, and the dog's coat. The luminous, compact marble lends the piece a sense of balance and formal nobility.Ideal for collectors and lovers of Neoclassical art, this sculpture is an authentic example of early 19th-century Italian sculpture, perfect as a centerpiece or display piece in elegant and formal settings.Period: Early 19th
