Description

"The Isère Valley between Voirons and Voireppe." Framed and colored engraving. "The Isère Valley between Voirons and Voireppe." Framed and colored engraving. WILHMORE, A., circa 1841.Shows some damage.This steel engraving was created by A. Wilhmore based on a drawing by Thomas Allom (1804-1872) for G. N. Wright's book France Illustrated, 1841. Published by Fisher, Son and Company, London and Paris. It should be noted that this is the hand-colored version, which is less common than the black-and-white one. Curiously, the town in the Isère department is called Voreppe (not Voireppe) and is part of the canton of Voiron (not Voirons)--errors found on all known surviving copies of this engraving. · Dimensions: 40 x 1 x 34.5 cm
