Description

The crossbow-bombé front opens with two drawers without crossbar, adorned with a continuous gilt decor of a Chinese landscape -- pagoda beneath a willow, mountains and boats -- which continues onto the curved sides. The uprights receive rocaille gilt bronze chutes, in harmony with the foliate handles and the hoofs that shoe the tall cabriole legs. The brown-grey breccia marble top, moulded in a beak edge, follows the curve of the carcase.This formula of a small between-windows commode in European lacquer with gilt chinoiserie perpetuates the great tradition of vernis Martin furniture of the 18th century, brought back into favour in the 1950s by the Parisian style cabinetmakers for refined interiors.Condition report: Good overall condition. Sound lacquer with well-preserved gilt
