Description

Oil on canvas. These are four small paintings (each measuring 30 x 24 cm) presented in a single frame, all signed at the bottom.They depict four female figures in elegant day dresses, seated; two of them are at a table on which a bottle--which appears to be empty--stands out.The women's faces are distinctive, featuring flushed cheeks and noses and dull eyes, accompanied by rather relaxed body postures: perhaps the ladies have had a bit too much to drink)These are thus ironic depictions, yet lively and witty (the first figure on the right wears an almost clownish bowler hat!), expressing that magical realism with which Uber Coppelli imbues his realist subjects.The canvases are presented in a single frame.ARARNO0330074
