Description

Here is a piece that immediately stands as a true hearth sculpture. Pair of low wrought iron andirons, the design stylizing dogs with compact lines, the silhouette kept close to the hearth. The low form and the animal subject make them original pieces full of character. French ironwork of the 1950s. A utilitarian object turned decorative work, it will powerfully dress a contemporary fireplace or a characterful interior, and will delight lovers of fine ironwork.
