19th-century Empire-style Mahogany Pedestal Table

650 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Description

An elegant round Empire-style pedestal table from the 19th century, crafted from mahogany.It features a beautiful circular top covered in black marble veined with white, resting on a central cylindrical shaft with a molded base and a tripod base with the characteristic forms of Empire-style furniture.The top tabletop is removable, revealing a second wooden tabletop, giving this piece a particularly practical and original design.The fine quality of the mahogany, with its warm, deep grain, along with the balanced proportions of the base, give this pedestal table an elegant presence.A piece with character, ideal as a living room side table, an occasional table, or a decorative accent in either a traditional or contemporary interior.Period: 19th centuryStyle: EmpireMaterial: MahoganyTop: Black marble
