Description

Viennese Bronze - Cat Seated on a Green Marble Base, possibly attributed to Franz Bergman This Viennese animal bronze depicts a seated cat, its head turned slightly, ears pricked, and tail stretched out across the base. Its attentive gaze and the delicate rendering of the fur give the statuette a very distinctive presence.The brown patina, with golden-brown highlights on the muzzle, paws, and flanks, accentuates the texture of the fur. The cat rests on a rectangular base of green marble veined with gray and cream, whose hues bring out the warm tones of the bronze.The statuette bears a "Geschützt"-type mark on the thigh, visible in the detailed photographs. It is attributed to Franz Bergman, subject to confirmation.Dimensions: marble base 10.5 cm long x 6 cm wide x 2 cm high ： / bronze 5 cm
