China, 17th Century. Small Blue-and-white Porcelain Dish. Kangxi Period.

350 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 15,3 cm

Description

I present to you this magnificent small dish or large bowl made of white porcelain, featuring a superbly executed cobalt-blue design of fish among aquatic plants. Made during the reign of Emperor Kangxi (1662-1722). A blue underglaze mark of Emperor Kangxi, enclosed in a double circle, appears on the bottom.In China, fish symbolize prosperity and wealth.In impeccable condition.

Dealer

Aux portes de l'Asie
Arts asiatiques
Mobile : 0614053034

Eyrials
Saillac 19500