19th-century Chiseled Solid Silver Pitcher By Silversmith Lagriffoul, Marked With The "mercure" Hal

1 600 EUR

Signature : Lagriffoul

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Height : 24,5

Description

A solid silver openwork pitcher with blown glass, dating from the late 19th century, crafted by silversmith Lagriffoul. Designed in the Rocaille style.The chiseled body is adorned with scrollwork of foliage, latticework, and floral motifs, topped by an ornate neck with a hinged lid and a curved handle.The decoration on the body differs on each side.It bears the "Mercure 1er titre" hallmark as well as the master's mark on the rim of the base, "Lagriffoul."Height: 24.5 cmGross weight: 1.080 kilograms

Dealer

Christophe kabache

Orfevrerie

Mobile : 0603017774

20 rue beaunier

Paris 75014