A Japanese Embroidered Silk Panel With Cockerels And Flowering Wisteria

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Silk

Width : 90 cm

Height : 132,5 cm

Description

A refined Japanese embroidered silk panel depicting two cockerels in a naturalistic landscape beneath flowering wisteria. One is shown in flight, with its wings fully extended, while the other stands in the foreground among flowers and vegetation.The composition is executed in polychrome silk threads using a variety of embroidery techniques, particularly evident in the intricate rendering of the plumage, long tail feathers, and cascading clusters of wisteria blossoms.Embroidered signature and seal at the lower left.Period: Meiji period, late 19th century.Dimensions: 132.5 x 90 cm.Condition: Excellent condition with slight imperfections in the silk, consistent with its age.

Dealer

Mastromauro

Japanese Art

Mobile : +39 02 876550

Via Soperga 25

Milano 20127