Description

Large French sideboard from the early 20th century. Featuring a curved, bombé silhouette in the Louis XV style, the piece is veneered and inlaid with mahogany, walnut, kingwood, and various fruitwoods, and adorned with chased, gilt-bronze mounts. This high-quality sideboard boasts a unique construction, comprising two central doors and two side doors (see photos). The interior includes original, adjustable-height shelves and four spacious drawers (located in the central section--see photos). An exceptional furnishing piece--ideal for a living room, drawing perfect choice for antique dealers and interior designers. It is topped with an original, 4 cm-thick marble slab of significant weight and generous proportions. The sideboard is missing its keys and shows minor signs of age (see photos), but it remains structurally sound. Overall, it is in good condition.
