Description

of lithography HILAIRE Camille naked woman Scene sitting on his chair. Camille HILAIRE (1916-2004) - Although born in 1916 in Metz and thus supporting the somewhat austere reputation of the Lorraine country, Camille HILAIRE has completed an artistic career to color for bright, bright. Young admirer of Albrecht Dürer he retained the trait safe and incisive, and marked by the brightness of the Italian masters, he enrolled at the Ecole des Beaux-Arts in Paris during the dark years of the occupation and began to expose the various Parisian salons. This flyer has superbly fed his natural talent of these diverse and exciting travels and throughout the century, painted or woven his work expresses the beauty and diversity of Venice to Normandy he was particularly fond, Havre Thionville. And above all, Camille HILAIRE represented the nuanced expression of the composition. Thus, starting effective structures, he held the power in color and obtained an admirable and constant sense of calm, extent, grandeur translating patterns and elements, which never prevented him to express a burning passion for creating and sharing. Notable were his bare with perfect curves, coiled with charm and placed in an environment where their sensual fullness imposed itself in provocative grace. As for the scenery, Camille HILAIRE knew dictate the structure without apparent stress, depositing them what fresh green and spicy which often caractérisa. Thus, nature and elements they become a pretext which the artist "pushes" the color until you achieve the effect felt. PS: Petis chips on the frame as shown in the photo.
