

Pair Of Porcelain Vases From Japan From Nineteenth Century

480 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 16cm

Height : 24cm

Description

Pair of porcelain vases decorated in blue, red, green and gold on a melon ribbed bottom. A phoenix bird of paradise or a reserve fan-shaped, and a pagoda in a spring landscape with trees in bloom and flower bouquets in a dark blue cartridge identified succeed to adorn the rumen of these Japanese vases middle of the nineteenth century. Very good condition, a cooking crack inside a vase.

Dealer

Marie-Christine CHIRON

Antiquaire et Expert CNES

Mobile : 06 29 46 12 37

18 rue Mercœur

Nantes 44000