Description

Exceptional for its size, this mixed media (watercolor and gouache) measuring 56 X 39 cm. She describes a moment of tranquility in the cloister of Saint John Lateran in Rome, where the sisters are working to draw water from the well while others listen to the memories of an old eyeglasses to ... From a technical almost photographic not excluding a certain poetry, it is the work of artist Roman Massimilianio Bertozzi active in the second half of the nineteenth century, which had a color merchant shop and realized views of Rome with great precision which tourists in the Grand Tour doted ... signed and located so apocryphal bottom right (maybe the old signature was on a mat is the new coach and tried to copy it, but the work is guaranteed authentic), unframed.
