Description

PLATE PORCELAIN CHINA COMPANY OF INDIA - TIME QIANLONG 18th plate of the East India Company, the Qianlong period, 1711-1799. His style, made for the European market fits our style of Louis XV, which allows us to date more precisely the 18th room environment. The plate has a scalloped edge, a cap shaped basin resting on a small heel. The painted polychrome decoration is made of twigs and bouquets: The basin is decorated with a large bouquet of mixed flowers, accompanied by 3 small bunches. The rim of the plate has 8 flowering twigs, regularly distributed, alternating twigs flower buttons and twigs blooming flowers. A gold net red-bordered, in snapdragon frieze marks the separation between the pelvis and the wing. The edge of the plate is decorated with a
