Description

When I acquired this incredible Impressionist study some ten years ago, the salesman assured me that it was a work by Joseph Bail, a hypothesis that I swept as soon as the painter of the interiors Kitchen and other laundries seemed to me to be far from the freedom of touch of this canvas. However, when I think about it, the idea does not seem to me to be so ridiculous any more, but in the absence of a signature and a point of comparison with a final picture, these two women and this girl Painted around 1900 after the fashion, in perfect condition, canvas 41 X 33 cm presented in an old frame RG to marie-louise canvas 56 X 46 cm. The kind of painting with which one tends to seek the explanatory cartouche as in the museums! More photos and more in our shops in Pau and Biarritz and on our
