Description

Large early 18th century Basque chest in resinous wood. It rests on a large plinth sculpted and engraved on the facade, as well as the façade panel, also engraved with Basque motifs such as the central flower scroll and the sun in a circle, Iron origin. On each side are my sculpted posts in scales. The tray is lifted with the aid of the rear loaders. Solid furniture with all the characteristics of the Basque country in very good state of conservation;
