Description

Pair of bronze candlesticks in neo-gothic troubadour style 19th century. Made in 3 parts with lost wax reassembled hot at the forge. Rustic but finely crafted artisanal work, the cup is engraved and riveted. The character is in ribbed mail, with his shield held in one hand, and the other raised ending as holding the bobeche for the candle. The theme of the knight for a candle holder is rare, the rustic side and the beautiful brown patina reinforces the medieval style. Possibility of sending, careful reinforced packaging, registered with insurance and parcel number for tracking on the internet (shipping costs).
