Description

Exceptional marriage wardrobe in blond oak with four leaves, two drawers of period seventeenth century, provenance Normandy (Rouen, France). A practically similar model can be found at the Pierre Corneille Museum in Rouen (France). Mounted on four beams which hold the whole and richly decorated heads of children, foliage scrolls, clusters of grenades surmounted by a large right cornice jagged and four leaves with geometric decors. The drawers are decorated with heads of cherubs holding in their mouth the iron ties, such as blowers of wind. This powerful piece of furniture demonstrates its undeniable authenticity. Backs, locks, drawers of original drawers. An extraordinary piece of furniture for a beautiful home. my phone number : 06 13 36 09 30 Height:
