Description

Chest of drawers in inlaid marquetry of rosewood and rosewood, elegantly curved and eventful on the front and sides, opening to four drawers, ornamentations in gilded bronze finely chiseled, marble top, Regency period early 18th century. This dresser is in very good condition and is of exceptional quality. It has been completely revised and refinished. The bronzes are most certainly of origin, or perhaps slightly posterior (as for many dressers of that time). The marble is in good condition, it is very heavy (it is not broken: the line of the plate is in the veining, cf photo of the back of the marble). Note: some restorations on the wood, usual wear, well look photos (cf red arrows). ATTENTION: FOR DELIVERY CONTACT US WITH CITY AND COUNTRY OF DESTINATION. BE
