SØREN CHRISTIAN BJULF (Danmark, 1890-1958)

Danish painter. Studied in Paris and then in Dusseldorf.

Back to his native country, his eminent artistic skills propelled him into being one of his generation's most popular artists exhibiting regularly both in Denmark and abroad.

As a painter of portraits and landscapes, he devoted most of his work to painting market scenes of Copenhaguen.

A similar work reached the price of $ 13,800 at Christies in London in 1988

Represented in the Museum of Copenhaegen.
