Description

Description of the antiquity: "Typewriter Lambert 1884" "Typewriter Lambert 1884" Rare typewriter of mark LAMBERT manufactured in France by the manufacture of Dieppe at the end of the XIXème the disc on which are the 28 buttons in ebonite, is mounted on an axis and when actuated it tilts and tilts at its base the matrix bearing the 84 characters. The matrix comes into contact with an ink pad and relies on the paper. Each button is composed of 3 characters: lower case, upper case and / or number and sign. Really rare model and in fairly good working condition and conservation as can be seen on the pictures. Only to mention that it misses the stamp (bell) in the back With its original box also in very good state of conservation. The lithographs are still very
