Description

Drawing of a nude signed Hans and dated 99 bottom right. It is noticed that the arms and the head are unfinished for the eye to take hold of the back of the model, beautifully represented back in all its morphology. This design is protected by a larger glass that acts as a marie-louise and in a baguette frame. Dimensions of the drawing, 65x50 cm. Total dimensions, with frame, 80,5x65,5 cm. Marks Hans was born in 1946 in Darjeeling on the foothills of the Himalayas, grew up in England, sold used cars to Turkey by reading Steinbeck, became a ceramist and then sculptor and exhibited his sculptures in international art fairs in a contemporary art fair from Paris to Florence, from Brussels to New York. Hans' works are best known by a discreet audience of amateurs and collectors in Europe,
