

Terracotta Pottery Candlestick Night Lamp - XXème

700 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Terracotta

Diameter : 33cm

Height : 33cm

Description

Astonishing candlestick lamp-holder in terracotta, called "sizzling", and kaolin; work of an unidentified potter ceramist, twentieth work of the 60s and 70s.
Decor of a house-village with characters, many details including some which with kaolin (drying clothes, curtain window ...).
Object of curiosity and creative prowess ceramist, in the spirit of the bubble houses of the 70s and shared habitats of Le Corbusier, or Jacques Rougerie under the influence of Prouvé.
Good condition, to note several gaps. See photos.
Dimensions: 33cm x 33cm

Dealer

Les Couloirs du Temps - Samuel Collin
Folk Art and Popular Traditions, Regionalism, Curiosity
Tel : 06 81 53 21 70
Mobile : 06 70 45 88 65

Impasse des Ventes
Mézières-en-Drouais 28500