Description

ARREGUI Romana (1875-1932)

"The Basque smoker"

Oil on panel,
Signed lower left,
Cartridge on the frame,

Beautiful work of the Basque painter, Romana Arregui, which represents a Basque man smoking pipe.

Specialist in the representation of typical portraits of Basque folklore, Romana Arregui participates in the Salon des Independants from 1911 to 1935. Criticism notes that his works are brushed with "an expression and a color of the most attractive.
