Description

Cigar humidior in carved wood of the Black Forest (Black Forest *) in the shape of a niche, dog and ornaments in silver metal, XIXth century. This cigar cellar is in good condition. The roof opens to reveal the cigar cellar (pitches for 25 cigars) and the scratch-matches (a little used). We do not have the key. A note: the leash of the dog is unhooked, some dirt and wear of time, see photos. * Black Forest or Black Forest

The carved wooden objects of the Black Forest are not native to Germany but were manufactured in the Brienz region, Switzerland. The tradition of woodworking is ancestral in this region, the inhabitants perpetuate the practice of carved wood on the facades of houses, furniture or everyday objects. The sculptors excel in the representation of wild animals in their natural
