Description

Child toy vintage late 19th early 20th. The backdrop is a city painted on paper. (light blister on the left corner) The box is hinged as the tent is the barrier (open 35.5 cm). It was easy for the child to move it. The towers on each side are also painted wood (just laid). The characters are 6 by regiments with each one more chefs. They are painted terracotta. The painted metal cannon still works, thus serving to put paper to shoot the soldiers. Delivery not included in the price.
