Description

This circular earthenware plate with a lively edge underlined with an aubergine net has a gadrooned wing adorned with 4 flowers of water.

Polychrome decoration, of a character and a duck encamped on a long terrace with Chinese rock between 2 shrubs.

The presence of mosquitoes completes this picture.

These pieces with flowers of water on the wing were long attributed to MOUSTIERS FERRAT until the 27th international conference which returned to VARAGES some parts of its production.
