Pair Of Candelabra Rockery Nineteenth Bronze And Onyx

2 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Pair of large candlesticks Napoleon III period mid-nineteenth important bronze structure finely chiseled and gilded, deeply carved Rocaille in a Regency-Louis XV register of sinuous foliage decorated with shells and staples organized around a pear-shaped base onyx agate contained in a bracket acanthus console. The movement and liveliness of these models are the perfect testimony of the current Rocaille whose Just-Aurèle Meissonnier is one of the most famous representative in the early eighteenth. Good condition, beautiful gilding. Dimensions: 37 cm high X 20 cm wide.
