Description

Selected with care and expertise - as a certified gemologist, I personally choose each piece for its authenticity, quality, and brilliance. This elegant ring in 18k white gold is inspired by the iconic Pompadour design, which dates back to the 18th century at the court of Louis XV. Popularized by the Marquise de Pompadour, this floral and refined style has stood the test of time. This version from the 1980s offers a modern reinterpretation with Art Deco influences and a sleek, balanced silhouette. At its heart lies a stunning natural ruby of 1.60 carats, featuring the coveted "pigeon blood" red color--deep, vivid, and luminous. The ruby, with its natural inclusions, is beautifully framed by brilliant-cut diamonds (estimated G/VS) totaling approximately 0.50 carat, adding sparkle and
