Description

Tripod coffee maker / jug in silver plated metal Louis XV. Side handle with turned wooden handle, long fluted spout in drop end, lid with rickshaws. The size of this coffee maker is truly extraordinary, almost 30 cm high (29.5 cm exactly), and a total length of 28 cm. The silvering is quality, I had to test many times because the silver test was positive; the texture and shine are misleading with massive silver. There are old restorations: we can see solder elements on the fastener of a foot, as well as two solders with tin in bottom of the jug. The general condition remains very good, object perfectly solid, the quality of this object quickly forget the legitimate restorations due to his age. The purchase invoice of the previous buyer will be given to the buyer: bought 1600 euros in 2012.
