Skinned Human Body In Mâché Paper End Of XIX Eme Century

4 500 EUR

Signature : Probablement des ateliers du Dr Auzoux

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Height : 1.20 m et 1.47 m avec le socle

Description

beautiful skinned paper mache dating from the late nineteenth century early twentieth century. it is in good used condition and the colors have remained very fresh. some fractures to report including one on the shin. it opens to discover the organs but it misses the heart and the intestines. there is a label or signature trace on the right hip. it is undoubtedly a model from the workshops of Dr. Auzoux in the late nineteenth century. it rests on a metal base with three feet ensuring good stability of the whole. skinned in good condition of ideal use to complete a cabinet of curiosity or bring a little spice to your decoration. We deliver and ship everywhere, please contact us for a precise quote, thank you.

Dealer

Antoine Claeys - Maison du XVème

antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 06 85 53 27 42

24 grande Rue

Nogent l'Artaud 02 310