Description

Small mahogany travel cabinet, opening on the front to a flap (covered with leather) discovering 8 small inner ebony tirois and three compartments, provenance bishopric of Vannes (Morbihan, Brittany), vintage eighteenth century. This cabinet is in good condition. The key has been redone, its lock works. A note: the leather of the flap is very worn and stained, missing a few buttons of drawers (we can take care of putting back on request and quote), one side is a little apart (see red arrow), some small scratches and time wear, well look at the pictures.
