Description

This beautiful box, pillbox, box or snuff box dates from the 1850s, late Louis Philippe or early Napoleon III.

Its round shape, ideal not to damage the pockets and its soft touch make it an object that I would presume feminine. Its lid is engraved with a flower decoration on which appears a ladybug, carved in relief and lacquered natural.

A slot at the hinge and a slight lack of the lid above the rounding of the opening pusher.

Diameter 5.7 cm, height 2.9 cm. Do not hesitate to ask for photos or additional information by mail or phone.
