Description

Size 32 x 30 with frame 49 x 47.50 (scratched frame in poor condition) Watercolor in good condition Signature: E. Doigneau bottom left The line is sober, the tones are warm and yet almost dull. The drawing is not finished. The sky, in the white and rosé is only sketched, and represents a big task. There is no doubt that finished, this sky would have given the work all its brilliance and its spiciness. However, as it is, the work has a certain intimate charm. The horse, a thoroughbred camarguais, the Guardian wearing jacket and game bag, this one holds his trident barely sketched. The work bears a few pencil strokes, as well as some quick hints about the scribbled colors. Although unfinished, this watercolor remains a very nice portrait of Gardian Camarguais. To go further:
