

Silver Jug, France, 19th Century Circa 1840

675 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Height : 27 cm

Description

Silver coffeemaker with baluster shape. Lid decorated with gadroons, flower-shaped socket, spout with escutcheon and acanthus leaves. Rest on three feet with shells and fasteners of "cut leather". Blackened wooden handle. Punches Minerva 950/1000 Master silversmith: Francois-Julien Dean (1834-1852) Weight - 743 gr gross H - 27 cm Very good state of conservation, clean inside. To note: tiny depression on the body.

Dealer

Lucas L&E

Argenterie ancienne, Arts liturgiques, Arts Russes, Arts de la tables

Mobile : 0615687757

Maisons-Laffitte 78600